PREFATORY NOTE TO THE MEIRS COLLECTION

The collection of LIBRARY SETS of the works of English, American and French authors from the library of the late Richard Waln Meirs herein catalogued includes Notable Publications in LIMITED LARGE PAPER, EDITION DE LUXE, AUTOGRAPH, MANUSCRIPT, JAPANESE PAPER and other sumptuous SUBSCRIPTION EDITIONS. A number of these sets are bound in full or half levant morocco, others are in the Publisher's original cloth bindings.

Besides the above sets there are many finely illustrated books by the THREE CRUIKSHANKS; several sets containing Secret Memoirs of the Courts of Europe; a number of important ART PUBLICATIONS; books on Pottery, and a few important works of special interest to the AMERICANA COLLECTOR.

The Meirs CRUIKSHANK COLLECTION, comprising items Numbers 233 to 446, inclusive, includes First Editions of Charles Dickens, W. H. Ainsworth and other English writers, and an EXTENSIVE SERIES OF COLORED CARICATURES by the three Cruikshanks, some of which are of Napoleonic interest, others relate to the political and social history of Great Britain during the early nineteenth century.

A notable feature of this Cruikshank Collection is the ORIGINAL DRAWINGS AND SKETCHES BY ISAAC CRUIKSHANK AND HIS SONS, GEORGE AND ROBERT. These drawings include some of the finest work executed by these artists, among them being—The series of four original watercolor drawings by the Elder Cruikshank for the 1768 edition of Thomson's Seasons, a facsimile of one of which appears as a frontispiece in this catalogue. The 1917 edition of this work is illustrated by a series of the finished drawings, by the Elder Cruikshank, but differing from those for the earlier issue. There are also three other very important and excellent drawings by this same artist.

The greater part of the Cruikshank Collection comprises items illustrated by GEORGE CRUIKSHANK. These include many items of UNIQUE INTEREST, some of the plates having the AUTOGRAPH IDENTIFICATION BY GEORGE CRUIKSHANK. This artist's work is also represented by a number of very important ORIGINAL DRAWINGS AND SKETCHES, among them being a collection of original pen-and-ink sketches in one volume; the original sketches for "The Man of Metal," "The Comet of 1853," title page to "My Sketch Book," and "The Bottle." Two exceptionally fine watercolor drawings by George Cruikshank are,—"The Barber Shop" and "Sir Walter Raleigh and His Servant."

Among the items by ROBERT CRUIKSHANK will be found the series of ORIGINAL WATERCOLOR DRAWINGS executed by him for "The Chronicle of the Bastile;" and a large and very interesting series of COLORED CARICATURES depicting the political and social aspect of the reigns of George Third and Fourth.

All of the books from Mr. Meirs' library contain his armorial bookplate.

The following are a few of the more noteworthy items herein catalogued:

AINSWORTH (W. H.). Historical Romances. Sumptuous Large Paper Edition. 20 vols. in full levant binding (No. 1).

ANDRE (MAJOR JOHN). Authentic Narrative. By John H. Smith, 1808. In binding by Sangorski and Sutcliffe (No. 7).

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneeer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale, shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more books for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

A SUMPTUOUS PUBLICATION. Limited to 500 sets, of which this is No. 82.

The original subscription agreement entered into between the late Mr. R. W. Meirs and "The North American Indian, Inc." relative to the above set calls for the work to be completed in twenty volumes of text and twenty supplemental portfolios, for which Mr. Meirs agreed "to pay therefor the total of Thirty-eight Hundred and Fifty ($3,850.00) Dollars, payable in installments of One Hundred Ninety-two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($192.50) for each volume of text with supplemental folios as same may be delievred." Of this sum the amount of Two Thousand One Hundred and Seventeen Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2,117.50) has already been paid to "The North American Indian, Inc." for the first eleven volumes with their portfolios, leaving a balance of One Thousand Seven Hundred and Thirty-two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($1,732.50) to be paid in installments of One Hundred Ninety-two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($192.50) on the delivery of each of the nine (9) subsequent volumes of text with supplement portfolios which are yet to be published.

The original "proof of claim" for the subscription of the above set accompanies the same, according to which the purchaser of this set agrees to take from the publishers "The North American Indian, Inc." the remaining volumes of text with their portfolios at the original subscription price of One Hundred and Ninety-two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($192.50) for each of the volumes of text and its portfolio on the delivery of the same, or a total unpaid subscription of $1,732.50.

This set is sold under the above conditions. The purchaser assuming all liability for the remaining unpaid subscription.

The following is an outline of the work as it will be when completed, taken from the "prospectus" sent to subscribers of the same.

"The publication will consist of twenty volumes of text, and bound with the text of each volume will be seventy-five of the same pictures, each one of these being a full page photogravure. Several of these photogravures in each volume will be hand-colored plates of ceremonial subjects.

"The volume in size is a page 9½x12½; 350 or more pages in each volume. The best quality of imported hand-made paper is used; one selected particularly for its lasting qualities.

"As a supplement to the twenty volumes there will be twenty portfolios, each containing thirty-six of the large pictures, 12x16, or in the complete set there will be seven hundred and twenty of the large pictures and fifteen hundred of the small, making a grand total of twenty-two hundred and twenty, these also to be the very best photogravure work. Every care has been taken to make the book as good as can be made.

"It is understood that the total edition printed from these plates will be limited to five hundred, this number covering both the United States and Europe."

The total subscription price for the complete set is $3,850.00, "payable in installments of One Hundred Ninety-two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($192.50) for each volume of text with supplement folios as same may be delivered."

The following excerpts are taken from the Introduction to the work:

"The task of recording the descriptive material embodied in these volumes, and of preparing the photographs which accompany them, had its inception in 1898. Since that time, during each year, months of arduous labor have been spent in accumulating the data necessary to form a comprehensive and permanent record of all the important tribes of the United States and Alaska that still retain to a considerable degree their primitive customs and traditions. . . .

"It has been the aim to picture all features of the Indian life and environment—types of the young and the old, with their habitations, industries, ceremonies, games and everyday customs. Rather than being designed for mere embellishment the photographs are each an illustration of an Indian character or of some vital phase in his existence. Yet the fact that the Indian and his surroundings lend themselves to artistic treatment has not been lost sight of. . . . Therefore, being directly from nature, the accompanying pictures show what actually exists or has recently existed . . . not what the artist in his studio may presume the Indian and his surroundings to be.

"The task has not been an easy one, for, although lightened at times by the readiness of the Indians to impart their knowledge, it more often required days and weeks of patient endeavor before my assistants and I succeeded in overcoming the deep-rooted superstition, conservatism, and secretiveness so characteristic of primitive people. . . .

"In treating the various tribes it has been deemed advisable that a geographical rather than an ethnological grouping be presented, but without losing sight of tribal relationships, however remote the cognate tribes may be one from another. . . .

"In the spelling of the native terms throughout the text, as well as in the brief vocabularies appended to each volume, the simplest form possible, consistent with approximate accuracy, has been adopted. . . ."

Of the many reviews relative to this work, the following excerpts are taken from an article by Wm. Curtis Farabee, appearing in the "American Anthropologist," Vol. 13, No. 4, October-December, 1911:

"Mr. Curtis has been well known for a number of years as a photographer of Indian life. His exhibitions held in many of our large cities have been a surprise and a delight to photographers and artists alike. His pictures appeal to the artist and layman because they represent the side of the Indian which is close to nature. . . .

"Mr. Curtis has been very successful in reaching the mind of the Indian and in presenting it to his readers. No doubt much of the charm of his stories comes from the fact that they have been written in tent, cabin, and camp, in the very atmosphere of the simple primitive life they describe. . . .

"The greatest value of the work is in its wealth of illustrations. . . . No praise could well be an exaggeration of these photographs; they are admirable in every particular and must be seen to be appreciated. The portraits are particularly notable. . . . Every photograph is an illustration of an Indian character or some phase of his existance. . . . The importance of the work cannot be overestimated, because the Indian is fast losing his typical character. . . .

"The author is succeeding admirably in his endeavor to 'make the work one which in fact cannot be questioned by the specialist, but at the same time will be of greatest interest to the historian, the sculptor, the painter, the dramatist and the fiction writer, as well as to the ethnologist.'"

Among the many complimentary letters received by the author from persons of note, the following is an excerpt from one by the late Theodore Roosevelt:

"THE WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON,
December 16, 1905.

"My Dear Mr. Curtis:

"I regard the work you have done as one of the most valuable works any American could now do. Your photographs stand by themselves, both in their wonderful artistic merit and in their value as historical documents. I know of no others which begin to approach them in either respect. You are now making a record of the lives of the Indians of our country, which in another decade cannot be made at all, and which it would be the greatest misfortune, from the standpoint alike of the ethnologist and the historian, to leave unmade. . . . The publication of the proposed volumes and folios, dealing with every phase of Indian life among the tribes yet in a primitive condition, would be a monument to American constructive scholarship and research of a value unparalleled."

The volume now offered comprise all that have as yet been published, and include the following, each with its folio volume of plates:

LIMITED EDITION OF 500 COPIES. The plates include a fine etched portrait by Rajon, with the beautiful colored illustrations matted on Japan paper. The drawings composing this monumental work occupied the water-color artists for over seven years and the result is a long series of exact reproductions of the choicest specimens of the Walters Collection, considered the finest and most complete in existence.

The work was produced under the personal supervision of Mr. L. Prang and a number of experts in oriental porcelain.

ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY ISAAC CRUIKSHANK

(Numbers 233 to 237, Inclusive)

233. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). ORIGINAL DRAWINGS. Thomson (James). The Seasons. Extra-illustrated with four original watercolor drawings by Isaac Cruikshank. 12mo, full blue crushed levant morocco, with inlaid floral design in corners of each cover, and gilt tooled lines on sides and back, gilt top, BY SANGORSKI. London: Printed for A. Millar, and sold by T. Cadell, in the Strand. MDCCLXVIII (1768)

A most charming and attractive volume. The drawings are possibly unique, as they are not known to have been published. These drawings are charming and delicately finished water-color sketches by Isaac Cruikshank and illustrate the four Seasons. Each is signed with the artist's initials and each has pen-and-ink inscription on lower margin. They comprise:

(1) "SPRING." A group of three dancing maidens, one scattering flowers and being crowned with roses by her companions; the third maiden is in the background playing the tambourine. A tree, hills and brook form the landscape.

[See Frontispiece for Reproduction.]

(2) "SUMMER." Four damsels in flowing robes are dancing in a shaded glen; above them, in the clouds, two cherubs are dropping roses on their heads.

(3) "AUTUMN." Landscape, with field of rye, where a man and woman are reaping; mountain in background, tree to left; in the foreground three maidens in loose robes are walking toward the spectator.

(4) "WINTER." An old man with cloak drawn tightly around him is walking away from the wintry blast represented by three cherubs in a cloud and blowing wind; two boys are skating on a pond to the right.

234. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). ORIGINAL DRAWINGS. Thomson (James) The Seasons. With the Life of the Author. Engraved portrait of the author and four charming etchings by Isaac Cruikshank, each of the latter signed, "I. Cruikshanks delt." "R. Laurie fect." 12mo, full green crushed levant morocco, gilt back, gilt tooled lines on sides, gilt top, by Sangorski.

London: Printed for T. Heptinstall, No. 131 Fleet Street [1797]

A charming edition. Opposite each plate is inserted, after first being inlaid, the FINE ORIGINAL FINISHED DRAWING, IN BLACK AND WHITE AND WASH OF THE SAME BY ISAAC CRUIKSHANK. Each drawing is signed by the artist with his initials, each has the subject name on back, and the last, "Winter," has the following inscription in pen-and-ink on back—"The Four Seasons, Original Drawings by J. Cruikshank (Winter)," and the autograph signature of the engraver—"R. H. Laurie Esqr."

235. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). ORIGINAL WATERCOLOR AND WASH DRAWING. Signed by the artist, "I. Ck." and with the following inscription in ink, on lower margin, "Fleet market evacuated or Sans Culottes in possession." Height, 14¼; length, 20 inches.

This humorous drawing represents a band of French Republican Soldiers sacking the market; two of them are gnawing at a round of beef; others are unhooking the joints of meat in the butcher's shop; a part of the company with officers at their head is approaching with a flag lettered "La Gloire du Republique."

VERY FINE.

A large company of youths and maidens with a few elderly people are assembled in a large room; some are seated at a table to the right, before which a couple are in intimate conversation, the man being seated; two couples are in the centre of the room, dancing, a dog runs between one couple; to the left the fiddler is playing by his side a woman is nursing an infant in her arms.

237. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). ORIGINAL COLORED CRAYON DRAWING. Animated park scene, with four ladies. An Irish lassie with her hand on her hips and a challenge in her eyes, comes between two ladies, one of whom is walking away, the other, evidently the girl's mistress, passes her with a haughty stare; in the background the fourth lady is seated on a bench. Signed by the artist, "I. C." Height, 13¼; width, 10½ inches.

FINE PIECE. WELL EXECUTED. A most desirable item.

[See Reproduction.]

238. CRUISHANK (ISAAC). Tales to my Daughter: Moral and Interesting. Translated from the French by Mrs. E. W. Symes. With folding frontispiece, crudely colored by hand, and 2 full-page plates, by I. C. Cruikshank. 16mo, original gray printed wrappers, vignette on front cover. In cloth case, lettered in gilt on back. London: Dean and Munday [1818]

FIRST EDITION. Marchmont, 464. The frontispiece crudely colored by hand.

239. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). A Series of Five Plates designed by Isaac Cruikshank, and Engraved and Printed in Colors by Mays, Roberts, and others. Each plate loosely tipped on heavy paper, guarded and bound in one vol. 4to, half green morocco, lettered up back. London, 1797

VERY RARE SERIES. These plates are very different from the general character of Isaac Cruikshank's work. Aside from the beauty of the plates they are of great importance as illustrating the diversity of the elder Cruikshank's artistic powers. All the plates are lettered—JULIA'S JOURNEY TO LONDON, with the following sub-titles, inscriptions and date,—Julia and her faithful servant Joe departing to take the Warwick Stage to London. "Cruikshank del. Mays sculp." "Published as the act directs April 17, 1797, for G. Riley, 66 Old Bailey."

Julia arrives at Lord C's house to solicit a Curacy for her Father, where she is rudely treated by Young Lord C, but is resented by his Father's Chaplain. "Cruikshank del." "Roberts sculp." There is no publisher's line. The names of artist and engraver very faint.

Julia betrayed into a house of ill fame from whence she is rescued by a highwayman. "Cruishank del." "Mays sculp." Without publisher's line.

Julia examined by the Justice on suspicion of being an accomplice of the Highwayman. "Cruikshank del." "P. Roberts sc." Without publisher's line.

Julia in the Watchmans Lodgings, where she is searched by two Bow Street runners. "Cruikshank del." "Balston sculp." "Published April 17, 1797."

The above plates are all cut to plate-mark; but have the inscribed lower margins, as given above.

COLORED CARICATURES BY ISAAC CRUIKSHANK

[Numbers 240 to 268, Inclusive.]

240. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). COLORED CARICATURE. A Right Honorable alias in a Sans Culotte. How Happy could I be with Either Were I but the Chief of the Throng—But De—n it, as I can get neither, I'll take either Part of the Song. "IC." London Pub Decr. 20, 1792, by S. Fores. . . Folio, cut to plate-mark.

A composite figure, representing Fox in his double character as a loyal subject of King George and Advocate of the French Revolution. Beneath is a manuscript note relating to the historical and political significance of the print.

4 241. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). COLORED CARICATURE. Half Seas Over, alias The Hopes of the Family. "IC." London, Pub. March 7, 1794, by S. W. Fores. . .

A political caricature of a composite figure divided down the centre, the left half representing Fredric, Duke of York, and the right half Frederic, Bishop of Osnaburgh. A former owner has written the names of the characters represented, on the lower margin. In the lower right hand corner is the stamp of "S. W. F." indicating the print to be from the personal collection of the publisher.

5 242. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). COLORED CARICATURE. Pray remember Us Poor Children!!! "IC." London Pub, July 12, 1795, by S. W. Fores. . . .

Beneath the print is mounted a manuscript of the political history depicted on the same. Three statesmen are about to enter a room in Parliament, one William Pitt is silent, while Fox, another member of the trio, is pleading for the Irish.

9 243. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). COLORED CARICATURE. Ladies Wigs! "Woodward del." "Cruikshanks sculp." "Pub. June 12, 1798, by S. W. Fores. . . ." A folio sheet with six illustrations portraying female characters in various wigs, with appropriate sayings on tablet beneath each. Folded to small folio, in cloth portfolio, lettered on front cover.

9 244. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). COLORED CARICATURE. The Raft in Danger or the Republican Crew Disappointed. "IC." Published by S. W. Fores. . . . January 28, 1798. . . . Height, 9½; length, 26½ inches. Cut to plate-mark.

An unusually fine and important caricature by the Elder Cruikshank. A castle on a ferry-shaped raft is being towed to land by a stout rope the other end of which is being wound around a turn-stile by several English statesmen.

14 245. CRUIKSHANK (ISAAC). COLORED CARICATURES. Two colored caricature etchings by Isaac Cruikshank "Familiar Ghosts," Sketch 1. Ghost of a Village Lawyer. *"Woodward del." "Cruikshank sculp." mark, others have margins. All the plates have the artist's name, "Woodward del." All but one have the etcher's name, "Cruikshank sc." (sic). [London, 1800]

In blue cloth portfolio, lettered on front. A humorous series of sketches, each plate has line at top,—"Miseries of Human Life;" the inscription on the lower margins reading as follows,—"Being mounted on a beast who as soon as you have watered him on the road, proceeds very cooly to repose himself in the middle of the pond, without taking you at all into his counsel, or paying the slightest attention to your vivid remonstrances on the subject."

"During the endless time you are kept waiting in a carriage while ladies are shopping having your patience soothed by the setting of a saw close at your ear."

"Treading in a beau trap while in the act of gaily advancing your foot, to make a bow to some charming woman of your acquaintance whom you suddenly meet, and to whom you liberally impart a share of the jet d'eau."

"Squatting plump on an unsuspected cat in your chair!"

"Inviting a friend (whom you know to be particularly fond of the dish) to partake of a fine hare. . . but which is no sooner brought in, than the whole party with one nose order it to be taken out."

"As you are quietly walking along in the vicinity of Smithfield on Market day finding yourself suddenly obliged though your dancing days have been long over, to lead outside, cross over, foot it, and a variety of other steps and figures,—with mad bulls for your partners."

"Being accelerated in your walk by the lively application of a chairman pole a posteriori—his by your leave, not coming till after he has taken it."

GEORGE CRUIKSHANK

Reduced Facsimiles of Original Sketches

Below—Original Pen-and-ink Sketch [No. 364]

361. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). Drawings by George Cruikshank Prepared by him to Illustrate an Intended Autobiography. Published for Sir Benjamin Ward Richardson. With 49 plates on India paper. 4to, original brick-red printed wrappers.

London: Chatto and Windus, 1895

One of 50 copies on India paper, of which only forty copies were for sale. This copy is No. 26, so numbered, and signed by B. W. Richardson.

Cruikshank's intended autobiography was to have been published under the title "Recollections", but outside the present plates and a few memos and jottings was never touched. The publisher of this work was the executor of George Cruikshank's estate.

ORIGINAL DRAWINGS BY GEORGE CRUIKSHANK.

[Numbers 362 to 370, Inclusive.]

View of thatched cottage and barn.

363. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). ORIGINAL DRAWINGS and finished colored etching of the same, of "The Man of Metal." Drawn and etched by George Cruikshank. The three pieces neatly inlaid and bound in one vol. 8vo, full light brown polished calf, gilt back, lettered, sides with triple fillet border, inside borders, BY RIVIERE.

UNIQUE CRUIKSHANK ITEM. These two drawings and the finished plate were executed in 1821. They form a portion of the plate issued as "Comic Composites" of "The Scrap-Book." W. B. Cooke, to whom these drawings were presented, was the publisher of the second state of this plate. The collection above comprises the following,—

(2). PENCIL SKETCH. Second state, as the same appears in the finished plate, with the right hand outstretched and holding a mug of beer. With title and signature in the artist's hand,—"A Man of Metal, —G. Ck." and pen-and-ink inscription,—"Sketch by George Cruikshank and presented by him to W. B. Cooke."

(3). Colored Etching, with title and the two verses beneath.

364. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). ORIGINAL PEN-AND-INK DRAWING. The Comet of 1853—or Passing Events. With the title in the artist's handwriting, in large letters, and signed by the artist, "George Cruikshank." Height, 8½; length, 16¼ inches. Matted and in black frame.

This is the artist's FIRST SKETCH of this subject, so signed by him.

[See Reproduction.]

365. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). A collection of original PEN-AND-INK AND PENCIL SKETCHES by George Cruikshank, also an ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH LETTER by the artist on eleven sheets of paper, each sheet neatly inlaid to uniform 4to size and bound in one volume half red levant morocco, lettered up back.

UNIQUE CRUIKSHANK ITEM. The sketches are very characteristic and give a clear view of the method of the great artist in jotting down ideas and preparing for the finished work.

Leaf 1. A quarto sheet with pen-and-ink sketch and nine lines of text in ink, headed "Dedication." Verso blank.

Leaf 2. The back of an envelope, with a humorous figure in pen-and-ink. Verso blank.

Leaf 3. A quarto leaf, containing a series of original pencil drawings of heads, some in outline, but six others in finished state finely executed; with interlineations in pencil and Cruikshank's signature in ink,—"George Cruikshank." Verso,—Pen-and-Ink sketch of "Father Thames," so lettered by the artist, also a pen-and-ink sketch of head with helmet. Signed by the artist, in ink,—"Geo. Cruishank."

Leaf 4. A small scrap of paper with three portrait sketches in ink and pencil.

Leaf 5. An irregular scrap containing a pen-and-ink sketch, showing a bull charging a dog; three men looking on, a wind-mill to the left. Verso,—An earlier pencil sketch of the same.

Leaf 6. An 8vo sheet, containing original pencil sketches, the center an "Omnibus" surrounded by portrait sketches and penciled notes. Verso,—A. N. S. by J. G. Garhard, with pencil note between the lines, signed in pencil by George Cruikshank; a pen-and-ink portrait sketch by Cruikshank in lower corner.

Leaf 7. Portion of an envelope, with portrait sketch in pen-and-ink.

Leaves 8, 9 and 10 contain various sketches in pen-and-ink and pencil.

Leaf 11. Autograph Letter, signed by George Cruikshank. Dated, April 5, 1865. 2pp. To "Mr. Secretary Dorsett," relating to two of the regiments in which Cruikshank was interested and of which he was Colonel.

366. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). ORIGINAL PENCIL SKETCH. Signed in ink, "Geo. Cruikshank;" and captioned, "The Bottle," in his autograph. Size, 3 by 3⅜ inches. Hinged on cardboard, oblong 16mo. Enclosed in a red cloth cover, lettered in gilt on side.

[London, 1847]

In this sketch a man at a table is offering, apparently, a small quantity of liquor to a woman nearby. It is penciled on the back of an Admission Card to the Private View of Watson's Portrait Statue of John Flaxman, and is probably the ORIGINAL SKETCH by Cruikshank which he developed later into the finished design for the first plate of "The Bottle" published by David Bogue in 1847.

A most desirable George Cruikshank item.

Original Watercolor Sketch of "The Barber-Shop"

Reduced Facsimile

[No. 369]

368. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). ORIGINAL PENCIL SKETCHES. Two 4to pages of Original Pencil Sketches by George Cruikshank, being early sketches for the finished plate of the "Execution of Lady Jane Grey," issued in "The Tower of London," as follows—(1) Two full figures of Mauger the Executioner, one with axe raised, the other in the act of raising axe, also a half-length figure of Mauger and a portrait-sketch of Lady Grey; (2) Lady Grey kneeling beside the block, hands clasped, head raised, the unfinished figure of Mauger is about to blindfold her. This last is signed in ink in Cruikshank's own hand, "Lady Jane Grey." "Geo. Cruikshank." Full size of sheet when open, height, 9½; length, 15 inches.

The finished plate of the above is listed by Reid under No. 1913.

Grimaldi is shown being shaved by a lady and making grimaces during the operation; while the barber has thrown himself into a chair and joins in the roar of laughter caused by Grimaldi's grimaces; a gentleman to the right is also joining in the laughter.

[See Reproduction.]

370. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). ORIGINAL WATERCOLOR DRAWING. "Sir Walter Raleigh and His Servant." By George Cruikshank. Not signed. Height, 11⅛; length, 13¼ inches. Matted, with title on mat.

Shows Sir Walter seated in an arm-chair by an open fire-place, smoking a clay pipe; while his servant thinking his master on fire has just entered by an open door to the left, with a pitcher of water which he is about to throw in his master's face. In the foreground two dogs are lying on the floor, another dog stands by his master's side; in the background stands a table; a map hangs on the wall beneath which is the model of a three-masted ship.

ETCHINGS AND COLORED CARICATURES BY GEORGE CRUIKSHANK

[Numbers 371 to 387, inclusive.]

371. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). Business Card of F. Harvey, Book and Print Seller, 4, St. James Street. Etched by George Cruikshank. Card between plate marks measures 4 x 5 inches; the plate itself, 2⅛ inches by 2⅝ inches. Brilliant proof impression. In 4to cloth portfolio. No place, 1872

Douglas, 1452. Unknown to Cohn.

29/- 372. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). COLORED ETCHINGS. Pretty Bob; Poor Bob; Dandy Bob. Three etched plates IN COLORS by George Cruikshank, on India paper. 8vo, mounted to royal 8vo, loose in red cloth portfolio, gilt-lettered on back.

[London:] Published by G. Humphrey, March 1, 1819

VERY RARE. Reid, 873; Marchmont, 226.

These three etchings were originally issued on a single sheet and used as a folding frontispiece to the volume—"Poor Bob, the Chimney Sweeper." While Douglas (441) and Cohn (640) both mention that work, neither lists these etchings in separate form. The subject of them is a respectable child who becomes a sweep. He is shown (1) as a cleanly dressed boy with hoop and stick; (2) as a chimney-sweep, sooty, and munching a crust of bread; (3) still as a sweep, half-starved and with mis-shapen legs.

From the Truman Collection.

15/- 373. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). ETCHINGS. Two Original India PROOF PLATES for Ainsworth's "The Tower of London," FIRST EDITION, 1840, to face (1) p. 112, "Queen Jane, Lord Guildford, Dudley," &c.; (2) p. 126, "Jane imprisoned in the Brick Tower." Size of plate, royal 8vo with margins; mounted on heavy plate paper, 11¾ by 17 inches. In maroon cloth portfolio, lettered on front cover.

ORIGINAL PROOF IMPRESSIONS, only a very limited number so printed. Each plate is a Presentation Copy to James Bacon, with penciled inscription in the autograph of George Cruikshank as follows,— "James Bacon, Esq., with the kind regards of Geo. Cruikshank."

3/- 374. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). Illustrated title IN COLORS to The Matrimonial Ladder, A Serio Comic Scene, with characteristic symphonies written by Banter Benedick, composed and dedicated to all whom it may concern, by J. Blewitt. Plate is composed of 16 colored compartments, with title in centre, small folio.

London: J. Alfred Novello, no date

Reid, 2242. This edition not given by either Douglas or Cohn.

There are 16 dainty vignettes composing the plate: Top, "Celebration;" bottom, "Reconciliation;" right side, 7 scenes of strife and bickering; left side, 7 scenes of courtship.

3/- 375. CRUIKSHANK (GEORGE). Two etched plates IN COLORS (some of the coloring rather crudely done), both signed "Cruikshank del.," and entitled, (1) "Sir Francis Burdett in custody of the Sergeant at Arms after the forcing of his House, Monday, April 9, 1810;" (2) "Lord Moira, Governor of the Tower, receiving from the Sergeant at Arms the Warrant of Commitment of Sir Francis Burdett, April 9, 1810." Both oblong 8vo.

London: Printed and Published by R. Harrild [1810]

See Reid, 106, for description of these plates. He gives no publisher.

Douglas attributes them to George Cruikshank, although he names a publisher other than Harrild. (See Douglas, 343, 344).
